RELEASE OF LIABILITY

I, _____, have voluntarily joined the ETAN Solidarity Observer Project for the 2012 Parliamentary Election in Timor-Leste. While in Timor-Leste, I will be responsible to the Observer Project and agree to follow its Code of Conduct for this Observer Project.

I understand that I am responsible for my own travel and living expenses, except where other arrangements have been made with the project coordinator.

I understand that there are great differences between Timor-Leste and my own country. These differences include climate, living conditions, diet, water quality, transportation, medical care, and physical safety.

I understand that I may need to camp outside during my stay in Timor-Leste and that if I do receive housing, it may not have either running water or indoor toilet facilities.

I know that transportation in Timor-Leste may not be either as available or as safe as it is in my own country.

I understand that health care facilities in Timor-Leste are limited and that access to all types of health care, including emergency health care may be difficult in some situations. I understand that I will not be able to expect the same type of health care as I would receive in my own country.

I understand that I am responsible for taking all health precautions for travel to Timor-Leste, including immunizations and preparation of necessary medication. I have informed ETAN of any condition of my mental or physical health that might affect my participation in the delegation.

I understand that there is violence occurring in Timor-Leste and that the degree, location, and type of violence occurring is constantly changing. I understand that traveling to Timor-Leste involves risks.

With this understanding and in consideration of my participation in the Observer Project, I completely accept and assume all responsibility for any and all risks of damage or personal injury which may occur during or result from my participation in the program.

I also hereby release, discharge, and agree to hold harmless the East Timor Action Network, Inc. (ETAN), its members, staff, directors, officers, promoters and employees, agents, and successors, from any and all liability, claims, demands, rights or causes of action, present or future, whether known or unknown, anticipated or not anticipated, whether brought on my behalf or for any other person, or by my heirs, executors or assigns, for personal illness, injuries or death, or any damage to or loss of personal property which may occur en route to, during, from or as a result of my participation in ETAN's Solidarity Observer Project .

In signing this document, I expressly release, discharge, and hold harmless ETAN and the persons described above to the maximum extent permitted by law in any state, territory, district, or country.

I have read the foregoing and sign it voluntarily. I am of sound mind and act of my own free will without any coercion or duress in signing this Waiver of Liability and Assumption of Risk.

I am at least eighteen (18) years of age. I have read and understand all of the above statements.

Signed this _____ day of _____, 2012.
